Minutes:

MAYOR GOODMAN thanked DOROTHY BARNES for delivering tickets to DEPUTY CITY MANAGER BETSY FRETWELL'S office, inviting all to attend tonight's last showing of a Christmas presentation being held at the International Church of Las Vegas on Westcliff Drive at 7:00 p.m. The tickets were made available at this meeting.

DOROTHY BARNES, Las Vegas resident, commented she was still working on her project, seeing Las Vegas become a world class city with world class citizens. She continued her plea for assistance with programs that have continued to use her name without her permission, as it is costly for her and she does not have funds for legal representation. It was her opinion that these types of programs bring about poverty. MAYOR GOODMAN wished her a very good year in 2008. He extended assistance from staff should she like to take advantage of the services.

TEDDY RUSSELL, Las Vegas resident, expressed glee for he will soon be employed. He once resided in the Maryland Villas project and undoubtedly felt he had the best neighbors ever. He commended COUNCILMAN REESE for sustaining his barbershop business, as he can remember he was 12 years old when the business opened. He referred to a Times' magazine and predicted the Bishop of Rome will be the Person of the Year and believed the plaza will become Union Plaza. MAYOR GOODMAN wished him a Happy New Year.

On behalf of the Council, MAYOR GOODMAN wished everyone the safest and happiest holiday season and new year.

Meeting adjourned at 1:24 p.m.
